Administrative History

The Blomidon Naturalists Society (hereafter BNS) is a field naturalists club centered around the eastern Annapolis Valley of Nova Scotia. The Society is organized under the Society's Act of Nova Scotia and began in March 1974. Since then it has grown in membership to about 250 individual and family memberships. The Society organization is directed by an executive plus directors. The BNS is a registered charity and has applied for conservation easement status with the province of Nova Scotia.
