Biographical Sketch

The Frederick William Gordon, son of J. Roy Gordon and Vera Marie Harlow, was born February 14, 1914 in Milton, Queens Co., Nova Scotia. In 1937, he married Jean (Munro Newcomb), and they had four children: Alexander (Sandy), Ellen, John, and Roy.

Gordon worked at for the Department of Highways before spending several years as part of a woodlands surveying team for Mersey Paper Company, and then as a secretary with Mersey Shipping Company. Gordon studied at the Maritime Business College in Halifax, Acadia University (B.A. and B.D 1942-1946) and Newton Theological College, Boston. After studying theology, he served as the Baptist Pastor in St. Margaret's Bay, Kingston, Canard, and Plaster Rock. He was the first Director of Rural Life for the Maritime Baptist Convention as well as the Director and Manager of the Atlantic Baptist for ten years.

In 1971, Gordon became the minister of the Milton and Summerville Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ). Eventually he semi-retired to the position of Minister of Visitation and was appointed Minister Emeritus.

Gordon was the Chair of the Milton Village Commission for 11 years, and was active in the Milton Historical Society. He was a fundraiser for the Women's Interchuch Council, and chaired fundraising for the expansion of the Centre for Adult Living in Milton. For four years he was the editor of the Canadian Disciple. He was an avid naturalist and helped choose the location for the Thomas H. Raddall Provincial Park, just outside of Liverpool, NS. Gordon was also the General Chairman for the expansion campaign for Queens General Hospital.

Frederick Gordon died on 12 August, 2004.
