Administrative History

The Wolfville Lawn Bowling Club was presented as an idea to the Wolfville town planning advisory committee in 1981 with the help of the Wolfville Rotary Club. A ten year lease for land located on the Eastern Kings Memorial Hospital land on Wickwire Ave was acquired and the club officially became its own body. After two years of planning and development, the Club opened in August of 1983 with Maurice Hennigar as president and approximately 60 members. Eventually, the land on Wickwire Ave was sold by the Eastern Kings Memorial Health Foundation to Wolfville Nursing Homes Ltd to build an assisted living complex, and the Wolfville Lawn Bowling Club was dissolved in 2005.
